Error & Omissions Insurance (Variable)	$ 198.00	Annual Fee (Nov 30 th )	Rice Insurance
	$2068.00

The fees listed are provided as estimates only and are subject to change without notice. The Error & Omissions Insurance may vary depending on what brokerage you affiliate with as they may require additional coverage.

These fees do not include any marketing costs or desk fees from the brokerage firms. Marketing costs are largely up to the licensee and commission splits and/or desk fees are determined by what each individual brokerage has to offer. There are also continuing education requirements that will cost approximately $150.00 to $300.00+ per year.

We strongly recommend that prospective students contact us and set up a face to face no-obligation appointment so that we can review the Home Study & Classroom Training as well as answer any/all questions you may have. You may also wish to speak with someone who is currently a Realtor and we can help with that as well.
